ADVANCE SPRING SHOWING

You Want the Best

and we are anxious that you have it. As we have said before, we are after new and attractive Merchandise that will make our store look as though we had just opened up. Everything new. There are special prices on the lots of new kinds as follows:

New Goods, New Prices

New line of Drap De Linde in a very new line of colors and styles. This is an 18c cloth, now at 15c per yard.

Assorted styles in a crinkly Seersucker that sells in Boston at 19 cents, here at 15c. New and just right.

New lot of Dimities in all colors and very pretty figures, 15 cent values for 12 1/2c.

Fifteen cent Shirting Madras in all stripes and figures, now at 12 1/2c.

Eighteen cent solid dot Swiss Muslin just a few pieces, now at 12 1/2c per yard.

Flemish Linen. This is one of the best cloths for ladies' wash skirts, boys' shirts or waists, and ladies' working waists. Made to sell at 15 cents; this early purchase now at only 10c per yard.

New Ladies' Suits and Misses' Jackets by express today.

Wash Goods

Another lot of best 12 1/2 cent Ginghams now at 10c per yard. Not the latest pattern, but the best quality.

New lot of yard wide Percales in new patterns, both light and dark, just to push our February business, at 10c per yard.

New lot of Mercerized Satines in all colors, mostly blues, at 15c per yard.

Thirty-two inch real Scotch Ginghams in both stripes and checks at 25c per yard. This price hardly leaves even a small profit.

All Curtains Muslins have taken a drop in price. Manufacturers are cutting prices, so that you can now get 10c Muslins for 7 1/2c, 12 1/2c for 10c, 15c for 12 1/2c, 18c for 15c, and so on. These never were so cheap before and will not hold down very long.

Silks

We are talking Silks as one of our strong lines. We know that Silks are scarce; we think that we have an exceptional line of patterns, no two alike.

We have a very pretty new Silk that you see advertised in all magazines. It is the Seco Silk, and while New York parties sell this Silk for 39 cents, we never get any more than a fair profit, so the price is 37 1/2c.

Nearly all colors in our Directoire Silk that sells at 29c per yard, very good for evening dresses or waists, and at the price makes a cheap lining Silk for all kinds of thin goods, either Silk or Muslin.

New lot of Messaline Silks and Ribbons. All colors.
